

A Coat for Active Service

Big, long, warm and comfortable.

Physicians and other men whose work takes them out in the open in all sorts of wintry weather call our Stein-Bloch Smart extra long overcoat a blessing. It not only folds them in warmth, but gives them a distinction and style very seldom found in great outer coats. The fabrics are heavy Scotch cheviots and smart homespun in plain and mixed patterns. One of the most useful winter coats ever designed.

THE ACME SELLS OUT

BookStore Interests of Morgantown in This City Purchased By A. S. Law & Company, a New Concern.

A. S. Law, manager of the Acme Book store, is in Morgantown on important business. He has purchased for $12,000 the store and business here for A. S. Law & Co., a new company organizing for the purpose of buying and running the store. The store before the deal was made belonged to the Acme Publishing Company, of Morgantown, but Mr. Law had a considerable interest in it, and the latter was a director in the Acme concern at Morgantown. He retires from the Acme and will become the head of the new concern here.

Mr. Law formerly owned a book store and a small printing plant in Clarksburg, which he sold to the Acme about two years ago, and at that time became a member of the Acme Publishing Company. The store was increased in size and Mr. Law became the manager. The property proved valuable, and was continually enlarged up to the present time.

A short time ago the Acme Publishing Company was awarded the contract for the state binding, and also closed the deals on several large private contracts. It was then decided that the energies of the company should be concentrated more upon the printing and binding business. A large quantity of expensive machinery was needed to carry on the work, and the result was that the Clarksburg store was sold, and the proceeds will be used in the purchase of new machinery for the plant at Morgantown.

FUNERAL

Of John Cottrill Takes Place—He Died At His Home in Adamston Saturday Night.

The funeral of John Cottrill took place from the late home in Adamston Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment occurred in the Elk View cemetery.

Death came to Mr. Cottrill Saturday night at ten o'clock after a long illness with consumption. He was forty-eight years of age and is survived by his wife and six children, four boys and two girls. Before he was taken down with the illness which caused his death Mr. Cottrill worked in the coal mines at Adamston. He was a good citizen and his death is deeply deplored by his fellow citizens.

COUNTY OIL NEWS.

In the Salem district, this county, the Salem Oil Company has completed its No. 4 on the A. M. Hursey farm and has a natural producer good for 30 barrels a day in the Gordon.

Near the Harrison-Doddridge line, the South Penn Oil Company has completed its test on the John E. Davis farm and will have a 10 barrel pumper in the Gordon. In the same district, the Robinson Fork Oil & Gas Company is down 2,500 feet at a test on the C. Flanigan farm. The Sigley Oil & Gas Company has the rig completed for a second test on the A. M. Sigley farm. The Hope Gas Company has the rig completed for a test on the J. Lee Taylor farm.

In the Wallace district, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 2 on the R. V. Thompson farm eight feet into the Gordon and has not show for a producer. In the same district, the same company, has drilled its second test on the Elsie Lambert farm five feet into the Gordon and the hole has filled up 1,000 feet with fluid.

Salem's business men are again inspired with new hopes for a few more prosperous business year from the fact that there has been three good oil wells drilled in close to the town. R. Carpenter No. 3 just one-half mile north of Salem, came in a 75 barrel well, which makes territory in that locality look splendid. The Hursey No. 3, one-half mile southeast of Salem, which was drilled by R. T. Lowndes, of Clarksburg, came in Monday good for 25 barrels natural. On Dog Run Samples No. 8 drilled in by the Greer Oil & Gas Co., came in at 75 barrels natural. This well is one and one-half miles northeast of the town and which shows up exceedingly well for this section.

COFFMAN SELLS OUT

And Retires From Brick Manufacturing. His Partner, W. C. McKeehan is Now Sole Owner of Clarksburg Brick Works.

James M. Coffman has disposed of his interest in the Clarksburg Brick Works to his partner, W. C. McKeehan, and retired from the firm, as shown by a dissolution notice in another column of the Telegram. Mr. McKeehan will continue the business on an even more extensive scale. Mr. Coffman will not engage in business for the present as he desires to recover his health, which has not been good for some time. His retirement from the brick business is regretted as his long identification with it has been a good thing for Clarksburg, his manufacture of brick being one of the best known in this section. The many years he was thus engaged he had the implicit confidence of the public and was highly successful in the business.
